We are going to brainstorm the need here. The rule is that there are no rules.

Everybody throws out as many ideas as possible without discussing them. We'll weed them out afterwards.

The need is Stevie needs to focus better in class. Let's brainstorm!

Eat better breakfast.

Stop flirting!

Why didn't you say something before, Kevin?

Watching you guys was way too much fun to spoil!

Uh... how about I just get a pair of glasses, I just can't see well.

Stop goofing off. Go to bed/time.
